sexually and physically abused me from 1976-1985. This included violent vaginal, anal and oral rape. This happened hundreds of times, sometimes daily for weeks or months, interspersed with periods of time when the attacks were less frequent.

He consistently threatened me with violence and threatened to kill me, my mother, and/or my sister if I were to reveal the abuse. He threatened to kill and dismember me, promising my remains would never be found. To emphasize this, he would bring me to fields and woods and show me where he would bury each body part. When I was younger, he would demonstrate by cutting the arms off my doll with a knife. When I was a teenager, he made me bury my dog (accidentally hit by a car) while he described how I would be buried should I tell anyone of the abuse. He also used the account of Judges 19 to justify this, saying this would have Jehovah's approval.
